The task force spent a crazy week with four blockchain and hackathon conferences, an AMA session and more exciting events. Learn more about all of them in the report. Key events of the week:AMA session with founders of AworkerAworker CEO in human Capital ConventionAworker team at the World Blockchain SummitPublication on the Decentralize TodayJoseph Lowe is a new member of the Advisory boardPubbing in QukuaiwangVideo reviewPublication in a new listing sessionAMA with the founders of AworkerP's Friday we had an AMA session on Facebook LIVE with myself and Aworker HR partner and co-founder Michael Barkov. We discussed the latest Aworker news and answered the most popular questions from Telegram members. All videos from the previous AMA session can be found on the new Aworker Youtube channel. We've also had a lot of questions about T-shirts, so we're considering making more of them for you! I want to thank everyone who joined us for the session and watched our video afterwards. We'll have these live sessions more often, so stay up with updates! Ceo of a worker company at the Convention on Human CapitalInestively I went to the Convention on Human Capital as an expert in project evaluation in human resources management. We also provide curiosity about your arrival. I want to thank the organizers for the great event and everyone who attended! A team of workers at the World Blockchain Summit This weekend we went to the World Blockchain and Cryptocurrency Summit with members of Aworker's core team. It was a two-day conference for blockchain projects and crypto enthusiasts from a variety of industries, including an adviser to the Russian president, to meet in one place. We have to meet a lot of interesting people we would like to collaborate with in the future. I also gave a speech about the potential for the recruitment industry to grow with the introduction of blockchain technology. Here are some photos from the event. Publications on HackerNoonCentralized Giants Move to the Decentralization — Here's a whyscript: CoinTelegraph recently shared news about Microsoft and Amazon, considering the implementation of blockchain, even if it goes differently from their centralized values. These companies simply cannot ignore decentralization because it has become apparent that blockchain is the future. You can read the full article in HackerNoon.American Dream: Where to Find a Job in the United StatesScript: Every year thousands of people fly to the U.S. to build a better life for themselves and find a better job. Not all of them succeed as you might have noticed. To stay ahead of the curve and give yourself a fighting chance to get hired, you'll need more than a Facebook resume. You have to be on the best job search sites out there. You can read a full article in HackerNoon.Publications on Decentralization Today I recently published an article titled: Two Men in Singapore Face More Than 400 Allegations of Recruitment Fraud. Description: The Commercial Affairs Unit and the Ministry of Labour (MOM) charged two Singaporean men for running bogus employment businesses that fraudulently collected fees from foreign job seekers. Terry Tan-so I-Hse, 39, and Clarence Lim Jun Yao, 30, face a total of 442 charges for using three fraudulent companies that took charges from more than 300 foreign job seekers for jobs that did not exist. To read the full story of decentralize today's visit.The Newest Aworker Advisor: Joseph Lowy I am pleased to announce a new member of the Aworker Advisory Board, Joseph Lowe.Joseph Lowe is a certified cryptocurrency expert from Blockchain Council. From October 2017 to February 2018, Joseph was appointed a community strategist for CoinHealth, an innovative blockchain startup dedicated to decentralized EMK, biometric wear and user interest to become healthier through award-winning tokens in a gamified experience. In April 2018, Joseph joined Jury.Online as an arbitrator. As a certified expert. He is not a counselor by name alone, but he has the experience, certification and proven background for delivery. With a history of successful start-ups initially downloading, Joseph can help Aworker improve its current marketing strategy and give valuable advice from other project development parties. Read the full release on our Medium blog. A review on Daily FintechMa recently found an Aworker review on chinese website www.qukuaiwang.com.cn It's always great to see words about Aworker internationally. You can read the full article here. Video reviewsRelevant, a Youtube channel about promising projects in Russian, made an overview on Aworker. In the video, the authors go through Aworker single-page and explain the main benefits of the project and its potential to disrupt the recruiting industry. You can watch the full video on Youtube.Publication on the new listings It's great to see how Aroboth is increasing his presence on the listings. Join us this week as George reviews 4 Weather Apps for Windows Mobile Standard and then gives them all the great smackdown on Friday. Today's Entrant: Weather Elecont This is an amazing smartphone opportunity today, especially if you have a data connection. From tracking your email to tracking your favorite blogs, the features seem endless. Having weather information convenient at a glance is another amazing opportunity To help you keep up with the weather, Elecont Software offers a program that will report on current conditions as well as predicted conditions for the coming days. Read on for Elecont Weather's ($14.95) Elecont Weather review offers a 5-day forecast with additional temperature forecasts displayed on the banner that runs on the home screen. The location and appearance can be changed to suit your personal tastes, and the program is compatible with third-party software such as Façade. Opening the app gives you more information about the weather (current and forecast), including air pressure, humidity levels, ultraviolet levels and wind speed and direction. The appearance and details of this forecast can also be changed using the options menu. Weather conditions and forecasts are updated due to .com department of meteorological services Intellicast International. The frequency of updates can be set by the user from every hour to every 12 hours to a certain time of day. Updates can be accessed at any time through the main menu as well. Elecont Weather is easy to navigate and customize was easy. The first time you use the software, you'll be prompted to choose a forecasting city. Elecont includes more than 51,000 global cities significantly increasing the chances that your hometown or next door neighbor is listed. Once you've selected a forecast city, you can change the appearance of the dashboard and the frequency of updates. The Elecont weather will allow you to track the forecast for multiple locations, but only one city forecast is displayed in the information banner at a time. In the main program, you can scroll from city to city to view each forecast. You can disable Elecont Weather through the settings menu, and if you are using Façade, just know the plugin in the settings menu. One feature that is under development for future releases is that the ability to alert will sound through your phone (audible or vibrating) when a severe weather warning is issued for your area. Future releases will also provide an opportunity to view local meteorological radars. If your measures depend on the weather and should know the forecast at a glance, Elecont Weather ($14.95) is a program to consider. Ease of use: 5/5 Installation/setup: 5/5 Functionality: 4.5/5 Easy navigation Customizable Without weather warning or radar (under development) development)
